

TCM and Neuro Reflexology Certification Course Salisbury, North Carolina

Instructor: Cynthia B Hill

The Sorensensistem is a modern approach to reflexology, which incorporates the ancient methods of Traditional Chinese Medicine.

Based in research and clinical experience since 1978, and developed by Lone Sorensen, the Sorensensistem impacts the meridian, nervous, and vascular systems to relieve the source of the symptoms.

This unique 150 contact hour certification course consists of:

- * The history of reflexology
- * Differences between traditional zone therapy and Sorensensistem reflexology
- * Basics of physiology and anatomy
- * Meridians and their functions
- * How to alleviate muscle pain by balancing the vital organs muscles are associated with
- * Meridians and how they connect to certain muscle groups
- * 7 basic steps to analyze the source of physical symptoms
- * Muscle zones of the feet
- * How to analyze imbalances in the spine through neuro foot reflexology
- * Practical application with individual attention from experienced professionals

Students who complete this course will be eligible to sit for national (ARCB) certification.
