

April 2022, Integrative Health Institute

Comprehensive 300-hr. Foot Reflexology Certification Course:

- Components include a well-designed education suitable to new students and current practitioners in the CAM community.

Through educational collaboration with partners such as Carnegie-Mellon University, our course offering provides comprehensive training in foot reflexology theory and practice, including law, ethics and entrepreneurship skills to run a successful practice. Class size is limited; application interviews are open.